SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE NANCY PELOSI TO VISIT SAN FRANCISCO FOOD BANK

Speaker Pelosi to volunteer at local food bank & speak on rising food prices

WHAT: Speaker Pelosi will tour the San Francisco Food Bank to speak with staff about hunger in San Francisco, actions the Food Bank is taking, the rising cost of food and the effect the current economic situation is having on low-income families and the Food Bank.

Speaker Pelosi will also volunteer at the Food Bank and host a press conference regarding hunger and rising food prices.

WHEN: Friday May 30, 2008 10:30 am – 11:30 am

WHERE: San Francisco Food Bank, 900 Pennsylvania Ave. (cross street 23rd Street)

Background: Hunger is a significant problem in San Francisco with 1 in 4 children and 1 in 5 adults at risk of hunger. The San Francisco Food Bank serves 124,000 people and this year will distribute 31 million pounds of food into the community – enough for 66,000 meals every day!
